

“Sustainable Cities and Communities” ~Sustainable urban development and regeneration~

The Asian City Journalist Conference (ACJC) has been held every year since 2007 with the aim to bring journalists in Asia together to exchange opinions and share knowledge on critical topics around urbanization, and to establish a network among media.

This year, ACJC will focus on “Sustainable Cities and Communities ~ Sustainable Urban Development and Regeneration ~”. Besides sharing information on the state of Asian cities and their problems in terms of urbanization, we will also discuss about the sustainable urban development in the era of population decrease and aging society based on the Fukuoka cases.
