

BUILDING PLACES THAT WE ALL CALL HOME

First published 2022 by United Nations Human Settlements Programme (UN-Habitat)
Copyright © United Nations Human Settlements Programme, 2022

This publication has been produced by UN-Habitat's Regional Office for Asia and the Pacific. Its release coincided with the 25-year anniversary of ROAP on 26 July, 2022 in Fukuoka, Japan.

The content represents the activities of UN-Habitat's programmes in the Asia-Pacific region, under its Strategic Plan 2020-2023 and with a focus on programmes and results in 2020 and 2021.

For more accurate data and information, kindly consult relevant reports on unhabitat.org and fukuoka.unhabitat.org.

This publication has been released simultaneously in English and Japanese.

The ROAP management team thanks all contributors in Fukuoka and in the various country offices. A special thank is for the intern team, Anh Cao, Sothea Phou, Ryo Tsuchida and Nicole Weibrecht.

Design and layout : Andrew Ondoo (UN-Habitat)

The designations employed and the presentation of material on any map in this work do not imply the expression of any opinion whatsoever on the part of the United Nations concerning the legal status of any country, territory, city or area or of its authorities, or concerning the delimitation of its frontiers or boundaries.

Queries on rights and licenses, including subsidiary rights, should be addressed to

United Nations Human Settlements Programme (UN-Habitat)
Regional Office for Asia and the Pacific (ROAP)
ACROS Fukuoka Fl.8
1-1-1 Tenjin, Chuo-ku
810-0001 Fukuoka, Japan
<https://unhabitat.org/>, <https://fukuoka.unhabitat.org/>
habitat.fukuoka@un.org

Photo credits: All the photos in this publication are protected by copyright.

HS Number: HS/005/22E

List of Photos and Credits

Where no photo credit is explicitly mentioned, the copyright is held by UN-Habitat.

- Page 1: Yoma housing for the poorest and most vulnerable communities in Yangon's Informal Settlements
- Page 3 (Up-Left): Maimumah Mohd Sharif, Executive Director of UN-Habitat and Under-Secretary-General of the United Nations
- Page 3 (Down-Left 1): Providing Community Hand Washing Station in Dagon Seikkan Township, Yangon (credit: Win Hlaing Tun)
- Page 3 (Down-Left 2): Balloting Process of The Beneficiary
- Page 3 (Down-Left 3): Plastic to Profit. 3Ws (Women Waste Warriors), a community-based organization in Manila, recycles PET bottles into urban gardening pots as part of their livelihood initiative supporting their families while promoting proper waste management.
- Page 3 (Down-Left 4): Elderly citizen keenly observing the Heritage Recovery Plan through community participatory process in Siddhipur, Mahalaxmi, Nepal. Similar plans are prepared for 12 heritage settlements in Kathmandu Valley. (Photo credit: Newton Maharjan, Lumanti)
- Page 4 (Up-Left): The family engages in masonry work on their house in Shawlands estate following on-site training for local builders and beneficiaries by UN-Habitat's technical team (credit: A.Anas)
- Page 4 (Up-Right): A housing beneficiary, Mr. Kalimuththu engages in small-scale organic vegetable cultivation on his own plot of land. During a competition conducted by the Department of Agriculture in Nuwara Eliya in 2019, he was named the best farmer in the Diyagama West region (credit: M. Kajenthiran)
- Page 4 (Down-Right): Illustration of Hanoi Creative City (credit: UN-Habitat Viet Nam / Tu Na)
- Page 5 (Up-Right): 2019-01-03_workshop
- Page 5 (Down-Right): Director General, of General Department of Housing, monitored the house construction and provided a guidance to the community
- Page 7 (Up): Timor-Leste, Dili, municipal waste dump on fire - Sep 2019
- Page 7 (Middle-Left): Professor Matsufuji (Fukuoka, Japan)
- Page 7 (Middle-Right): Installation of a vertical gas pipe at the Htein Bin final disposal site
- Page 8 (Up-Right): CGC Female workers
- Page 8 (Down-Left): Mangrove situation in Kep Province (credit: UN-Habitat CMB)
- Page 8 (Down-Right): Director General, of General Department of Housing, monitored the house construction and provided a guidance to the community
- Page 9 (Up-Right): A planner led the group discussion for the primary school students to design their own community (credit: Wuhan Land Use and Urban Spatial Planning Research Center (WLSP)). People on the picture: planner of WLSP, primary students of Wansongquan Primary School. Caption 2: On 5th Nov, 2021, the Children Participation in Community Renewal Workshop was organized in Wuhan, China. The workshop was organized by the UN-Habitat and WLSP. More than 20 primary school students actively engaged in the workshop. They were led to 're-build' their ideal community.
- Page 9 (Down-Left): 24/7 community-based small-scale water supply system in Attapeu province, southern Lao PDR
- Page 9 (Down-Right): Resident of newly constructed houses drive tractor to his farm
- Page 10 (Up-Left): Community engagement in climate change vulnerability assessment
- Page 10 (Up-Middle): Horizontal leachate collection pipe installation
- Page 10 (Up-Right): Handwashing station with soap to prevent the spread of COVID-19 in informal settlements

- Page 10 (Down-Left): Nowshera Pakistan: Recurring floods damage the lives of individuals, destroy infrastructure and render much drinking water infrastructure unusable in affected areas
- Page 10 (Down-Right): Capacity built and awareness raised among school children and teachers for better preparedness to respond effectively during disasters.
- Page 11 (Up-Left): Strengthening ownership. As part of the people's process in the Rebuilding Marawi project, homeowners take part in various phases of building permanent shelters – house design, construction, and monitoring among others
- Page 11 (Up-Right): Marawi - family - Hadiya Village
- Page 12 (Down-Left): Coastal erosion in Tra Vinh province, Vietnam
- Page 11 (Down-Right): Ha Noi urban development (credit: Nguyen Lam Phuc)
- Page 12 (Up): Kukum Fishing Village, Honiara
- Page 12 (Down): Vuniivi mural (credit: Katherine Drakeford)
- Page 13 (Up-Left): Before, Kabul, District 2 (CGC)
- Page 13 (Up-Right): Empowering women. Playing active roles in rebuilding their communities, women served as leaders in the homeowners' associations organized through the capacity building initiatives of the Rebuilding Marawi Shelter and Livelihood project
- Page 13 (Down-Left): After, Kabul, District 2 (CGC)
- Page 13 (Down-Right): Eng. Maryam Azizi the team leader of CFA is inaugurating the project work in district 10 of Kabul city
- Page 14 (Up-Left): Ingrid Macabare, Solid Waste Management Head of the Environment and Natural Resources Office in Ormoc City
- Page 14 (Down-Left): Gathering of the elderly citizens in the reconstructed Dhokapine Falcha (community rest house) is a regular sight in Bungamati, Lalitpur, Nepal
- Page 15 (Up): Surveying the socioeconomic situation and housing conditions in Yangon's informal settlements
- Page 15 (Down-Right): Naz Gull, civil society activist
- Page 16 (Up): ACROS Fukuoka (credit: ACROS Fukuoka)