ORGANIZATION:	United Nations Human Settlements Programme (UN-Habitat) UN Core Values: Integrity, Professionalism, Respect for Diversity
PROJECT:	Pathway to Sustainable, Resilient, and Inclusive development in Jajpur, Vyasaganagar and Panasa Gram Panchayat – Phase 2
FUNCTIONAL TITLE:	Project Officer - Urban
DUTY STATION:	Delhi (70%), Bhubaneshwar (30%)
DURATION:	12 months with the possibility of extension based on performance The first contract will be issued until 31 December 2024
TYPE OF CONTRACT:	UNOPS Local Individual Contractor’s Agreement (LICA 9)

Background:

The project - Pathway to Sustainable, Resilient and Inclusive development in Jajpur, Vyasaganagar and Panasa Gram Panchayat, implemented in Jajpur District in Odisha is an ongoing engagement since 2018. Based on evidence-based assessment covering the district and the three jurisdictions with the application of contextualized urban planning framework developed by UN-Habitat, five priority challenges were identified, namely:

- Untapped local heritage and livelihood development potential
- Scattered urban growth
- Inadequate road infrastructure and absence of public transport
- Fragmented blue-green network
- Vulnerable urban health

With the guidance of Jajpur District administration and intensive local-level consultations, UN-Habitat has developed Sustainable City Strategies for three jurisdictions: Jajpur, Panasa GP and Vyasaganagar that address the priority issues in these areas with recommendations encompassing – policy and regulatory amendments, pan-city and area-based actions and interventions for investments on physical, social, and economic infrastructure. Specifically, the approach promotes low carbon footprint, safeguarding the biodiversity and natural assets, augmenting the quality of life of the communities and harnessing the untapped potential of its creative economy.

Jajpur district recognizes the value of leveraging its cultural and natural endowments for sustainable and inclusive development, and has prepared culture-based city-district strategy anchored with a project pipeline for investment over the next 5 years. The comprehensive city-region strategy presents an opportunity to galvanize communities, local government, and private sector to foster formal-informal coalitions for enabling investments in the cultural economy and sharing the dividends across the rural-urban continuum to reduce the regional disparities.

In the second phase of the project to be implemented from 2023 onwards, the focus will be on three components – knowledge, policy, and technical assistance. Through comprehensive activities and outputs proposed under each component, the project will create a vibrant and sustainable urban environment grounded in harnessing the cultural and heritage capital of the district to achieve the following outcomes:

1. Data-driven spatial urban sustainability assessment informs multi-sectoral territorial challenges and opportunities for development.
2. Low-carbon and ecologically sensitive development pathway guided by sustainable city-district strategies
3. Improved project pipeline for demonstrable on-ground transformations
4. Strengthen local government capacity for evidence-based urban planning and management decision-making.
5. Enhanced network of local governments benefiting from knowledge products on resilient, sustainable, low-carbon development.
